SUMMARY OF APRIL 2004 AMENDMENTS

LR 3.3: Paragraphs (c)(1) and (c)(2) have been amended to clarify that not only to they apply to pleadings but also to all subsequent motions, documents, papers or other documents filed in the case.

Paragraph (c)(3) is added to ensure that papers and documents filed on the “eve-of-hearing” are received timely in the location where the hearing or trial is to be held. It also provides for an additional chambers copy to be filed in the location where the presiding judge maintains chambers.

LR 10.1: Subsection (e) amended to include the e-mail address along with the address, telephone and facsimile numbers.

LR 83.1: Paragraph (4) has been added to subsection (d) specifying the information that an applicant for admission pro hac vice must provide the court in the application. The information requested is directed primarily to determining fitness for admission by requiring disclosure of any pending or past disciplinary actions against the applicant (on those that were in the past, only those actions that resulted in suspension or disbarment must be disclosed).

New subsection (k) codifies the current admission fee collected imposed for original admission and increases the current fee for pro hac vice admission to $150.

(a) Proof of Service. Proof of service under Rule 5, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure must be made by:

- (1) the recipient's acknowledgment of service; or
- (2) through certification of the person making the service, which certification must include—
  - [A] the person or persons upon whom it was served,

- [B] the means of service, and
- [C] the date it was served.

(3) [A] Unless impractical, proof of service should be reflected on the document served, not on a separate document.

[B] Where a document includes attachments, e.g., exhibits, affidavits, or a proposed order, a separate certificate of service is not required for the attachments provided they are specifically referenced in the certificate of service for the principal document.

(b) Facsimile Filing. Pleadings or documents may not be filed by facsimile transmission to the court, unless specifically authorized in advance by the court.

(c) Electronic Service.

(1) Written consent to service by electronic transmission must be filed with the court and served on the other party(ies) to the action.

(2) The consent to service by electronic transmission should indicate:

[A] the method of electronic service acceptable;

[B] whether the party consents to service by facsimile of pleadings and documents in excess of twenty-five (25) pages;

[C] whether the party will accept service of pleadings by e-mail in a format other than Adobe Acrobat portable document format ("pdf"), and, if so, the alternative format that is acceptable;

(2) Consent to service by e-mail constitutes consent to service of pleadings and documents in Adobe Acrobat portable document format ("pdf").

(e) Inmate Filing and Service. A document filed or served by an inmate confined in an institution is timely filed or served if deposited in the institution's internal mail system on or before the last day for filing or service.

(1) Timely filing or service of a document by an inmate confined in an institution may be shown by a notarized statement or declaration under 28 U.S.C. § 1746, setting forth the date of deposit and stating that first-class postage has been pre-paid or that the inmate has taken the required steps to have prison officials affix postage.

(2) For purposes of calculating response times under these rules and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, parties responding to a document mailed by an incarcerated litigant are entitled to rely on the postmark date as the date of service by mail and not the date that the inmate deposited the document in the prison's internal mail system.

Rule 7.1 Motion Practice.

(a) Motion and Opposition. A motion is initiated by the filing and service of a single document, and the motion and any opposition to a motion must include or be accompanied by the following.

- (1) A concise statement of the decision sought by the moving or opposing party.
- (2) A brief statement of points and authorities relevant to the relief requested.
- (3) [A] Legible copies of affidavits, deposition excerpts, and properly authenticated documents or other exhibits as provided in paragraph (a)(4) upon which the moving or opposing party relies.

[B] Documents and depositions should be appropriately excerpted so that only the portions required to be reviewed to make the decision are filed with the motion papers.

- (4) [A] The evidence ordinarily presented, in support of or in opposition to any motion, includes:
- (i) affidavits;
  - (ii) declarations under 28 U.S.C. § 1746;
  - (iii) deposition excerpts;
  - (iv) admissions;
  - (v) verified interrogatory answers; and
  - (vi) other similar documentary exhibits.

[B] Bulky, heavy or otherwise sensitive exhibits, e.g. controlled substances or firearms, are to be photographed and the photograph submitted, or leave of court obtained for submission of the exhibit.

[C] Exhibits not provided to the court and the parties in this manner, including purely demonstrative or summary exhibits, may not be referred to in oral argument.

(5) Motions or oppositions presented to the clerk's office for filing that have supporting affidavits, exhibits, or other documents, must be firmly attached as one document where practicable.

(6) Proposed orders as provided in D.Ak. LR 7.4 are not to be stapled or otherwise affixed or attached to motions or oppositions.

(b) Reply. A reply memorandum by the party initiating a motion is optional, and, if filed, must be restricted to rebuttal of factual and legal arguments raised in the opposition.

(c) Citation of Unpublished Decisions; Judicial Notice.

(1) [A] Except to support a claim of res judicata, collateral estoppel, or law of the case, no decision, opinion, or order of any court may be cited in this court if citation is prohibited in the court that rendered the decision; and

[B] unless the decision is published in the National Reporter System or a National Loose-Leaf Reporter, a copy of a decision cited must be attached to the brief.

(2) The court may take judicial notice of the contents of case files within the District of Alaska to establish that:

- [A] other proceedings have taken place;
- [B] the same or similar claims have been raised and adjudicated; and
- [C] like or similar matters.

(3) The contents of other case files may not be used to establish disputed substantive facts unless those facts are established in a previous ruling, order, or judgment entitled to res judicata or collateral estoppel effect.

(d) Failure to Support or Oppose Motions. Failure to include proper materials in support of, or in opposition to, a motion as required by this rule subjects the motion to summary ruling by the court.

(1) If the failure is by the moving party, it may be deemed an admission that the motion is without merit, and, if by the opposing party, that the motion is well taken.

(2) No unopposed motion for summary judgment will be granted unless the court is satisfied that there are no disputed issues of material fact and that the moving party is entitled to the decision as a matter of law.

(e) Time Limits. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, provided by statute, or rule, an opposition must be served and filed within fifteen (15) days of service of the motion, and replies within five (5) days of service of the opposition.

(f) Format. Format is governed by D. Ak. LR 10.1. and copies of proposed orders by D. Ak. LR 7.4.

(g) Facsimile Copies.

(1) Clear and legible facsimile copies of affidavits or declarations under penalty of perjury in support of or opposition to a motion may be filed without further leave of court.

(2) Originals must be filed within five (5) days after the facsimile copy has been filed.

(3) Facsimiles on thermal paper must be photocopied onto non-thermal paper prior to filing.

(h) Supplemental Materials.

(1) Briefs and Pleadings. Supplemental briefs may not be filed without leave of court. If a party proposes to file a pleading or brief not authorized by these rules, the party must serve and file a motion requesting permission to do so and attach the original and a copy of the pleading or brief to the motion.

[A] (i) If the motion is granted, the clerk will file the proposed pleading or brief, or

(ii) if the motion is denied, the proposed pleading or brief will be returned to the party.

[B] When pertinent or controlling authorities come to the attention of a party after a brief has been filed, the party may file a notice, without leave of court, limited to two pages, setting forth the citation, docket number, and page numbers of the brief to which the citation pertains. No argument may be included in the notice.

(2) Factual Materials. Supplemental factual materials, e.g., deposition excerpts, discovery responses, and affidavits responding to new materials filed with reply briefs, or on account of a change in circumstances, may be filed only by leave of court.

[A] Motions for leave to file supplemental factual materials must reference by docket number the motion papers to which the materials pertain.

[B] Leave will not be routinely granted. The court will consider, among other things—

(i) whether the material was available to the party when briefs were due, and

(ii) whether the pertinence of the material was established at the times for briefing.

[C] Leave may be conditioned on such terms as the court in its discretion deems appropriate.

(i) Motion Submitted. A motion will be treated as submitted and ripe for decision after:

(1) the time for filing opposition has elapsed and no opposition has been filed;

(2) opposition has been filed, the reply filed or the time for filing a reply has elapsed, and no request for oral argument or evidentiary hearing has been made within the time allowed;

(3) opposition has been filed, the reply filed or the time for filing a reply has elapsed, and request for oral argument or evidentiary hearing has been made and denied; or

(4) at the conclusion of oral argument or a hearing if one has been granted.

(j) Postponement of Submission. All motions should be decided by the court as soon as practicable after all pleadings or briefs have been filed, and, in any event, within six (6) months from the filing of the motion.

(1) It is the responsibility of counsel to complete briefing of motions in accordance with the schedule contained in this rule, except where there is good cause to stipulate to extend the time for briefing or postponement of formal submission to the court for a decision.

(2) Where one or more stipulations for postponement will make it impossible for the court to rule upon a motion within six (6) months from the date the motion was filed, the court may, in its discretion, deny the motion with leave to summarily renew the same.

Rule 7.2 Hearings.

(a) Oral Argument. Any party may request oral argument by filing a separate paper making the request, and specifying the motion on which oral argument is sought, within three (3) days after the date the last paper on that motion is filed, or the time for filing has elapsed.

(1) A request for oral argument is not subject to withdrawal except by stipulation of all parties.

(2) The court will set the date and time for argument and notify the parties.

(3) The court, in the exercise of its discretion, may:

[A] order oral argument without request; or

[B] determine that argument is unnecessary and deny the request.

(4) A late request must be based upon a showing of good cause and is addressed to the discretion of the court.

(5) At oral argument counsel should:

[A] be familiar with the briefs and the record;

[B] be prepared for a colloquy with the court regarding tentative views the court may have reached; and

[C] avoid reading briefs or a scripted argument aloud.

(6) In the absence of an order setting an evidentiary hearing, hearings are solely for the purpose of hearing argument.

(b) Motions Requiring Evidentiary Hearing.

(1) In those matters where testimony must be heard or other evidence presented at a hearing, a motion for leave to present evidence must be filed not later than three (3) days after the party has filed the motion or opposition to the motion.

(2) If any party obtains leave to present evidence, all other parties may present evidence at the same hearing.

(3) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, not less than three (3) days before the hearing, a party who intends to present testimony must, except where counsel files a written certification that a requirement of prior disclosure would risk serious injustice, file with the court and serve on all other parties:

[A] a list of witnesses, together with a summary of what those witnesses will say; and

[B] an estimate of time needed.

(4) If a party appears at the hearing telephonically, any party intending to present or refer to documentary evidence must serve copies of those documents on the party appearing telephonically so that the documentary evidence is received prior to the hearing, where possible.

(c) Shortened Time. A party may move for hearing or consideration of a matter on a time schedule shorter than provided by the rules.

(1) The motion for shortened time must be accompanied by:

[A] an affidavit explaining—

(i) why shortened time is needed,

(ii) efforts made to work out the problem with counsel for other parties,

(iii) positions counsel for the other parties take, and

(iv) what dates are of significance; and

[B] (i) proof of service by a means reasonably likely to allow counsel for other parties an opportunity to see the papers at least as soon as the court, or

(ii) an affidavit explaining why service of the motion upon the opposing party under the circumstances should not be required.

(2) The clerk will immediately bring the motion to the judge's attention.

(3) The court may, if the motion is granted:

[A] act ex parte;

[B] set a hearing;

[C] order briefing on shortened time; or

[D] take such other action as may be appropriate in the circumstances.

Rule 7.3 Telephonic Participation in Civil Cases.

(a) Authorization for Telephonic Participation. The court may allow one or more parties, counsel, witnesses or the court to participate telephonically in any hearing or deposition for good cause and in the absence of substantial prejudice to any party.

(1) Requests to have incarcerated litigants appear telephonically will ordinarily be granted unless the litigant has a right to be personally present and declines to waive that right.

(2) Authorization for a witness to telephonically participate does not bar:

[A] the witnesses' testimony from being presented by audio-visual deposition taken under Rule 30(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; nor

[B] a party or attorney from being present at the site at which the witness is physically present.

(b) Procedure. The following procedure must be observed concerning telephonic participation in court hearings.

(1) When telephonic participation is requested, the court, before the hearing, will designate the party responsible for arranging the call and the party or parties responsible for payment of the call under the following criteria:

[A] the party at whose convenience a telephonic hearing is held will pay the telephone cost of the hearing;

[B] the court will pay the telephone cost if the judge is able to avoid traveling to the hearing;

[C] the defendant will pay the cost if the civil defendant, defense attorney or defense witness is able to avoid traveling to the hearing;

[D] the plaintiff will pay the cost if the plaintiff, plaintiff's attorney, or witness for the plaintiff is able to avoid traveling to the hearing; or

[E] when a hearing is set telephonically at the request of or for the convenience of more than one party, the court may order one of those parties to pay the cost and order the other parties to compensate that party for a portion of the cost.

(2) At least two (2) business days in advance of the hearing, the designated party must contact the court's case management clerk for instructions on how to proceed.

(3) Upon convening a telephonic proceeding, the judge or the court reporter will:

[A] recite the case name, case number, names and locations of parties and counsel, and the type of hearing;

[B] ascertain that all statements of all parties are audible to all participants; and

[C] give instructions on how the hearing is to be conducted, including notice that in order to preserve the record speakers must identify themselves each time they speak.

(4) A verbatim record must be made in accordance with D. Ak. LR 80.1.

(c) Public Access. The right of public access to court proceedings must be preserved in accordance with law.

[B] The remaining notes, bonds, coupons or obligations may be pleaded, in the same or another claim of the complaint, by a general reference or description sufficient to identify them with like effect as if they had been set forth verbatim.

[B] be signed by counsel for the parties; and

(3) If discovery is not completed by the date specified in the Pretrial Scheduling Order:

[A] the parties may stipulate to a continuance of not more than two (2) months for the completion of discovery, which stipulation does not require court approval, provided that the stipulation states with particularity—

(i) the discovery that remains to be accomplished, and

(ii) when discovery will be accomplished; or

[B] if more than two months is required to complete discovery, the parties must request a discovery conference with the court.

Rule 16.2 Alternative Dispute Resolution

(a) Policy Favoring Settlement by ADR Methods.

(1) Mediation. The court favors resolution of cases by negotiation to reduce litigation expense. To this end, the court promotes the use of mediation.

(2) Other ADR Processes.

[A] Other Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) processes may be used where agreed by the parties, including early neutral evaluation, arbitration, settlement conference, summary jury trial, and mini trial.

[B] The court will not make its personnel or facilities available for summary jury trials or mini trials and will not summon jurors to participate in those proceedings.

(b) Use of ADR Processes.

(1) Early Consideration of ADR Processes. At an early stage in every case, the parties must actively consider mediation or other ADR processes to facilitate, less costly resolution of the litigation.

(2) Coordination of ADR With Case Management Rules. At the meeting of parties under Rule 26(f), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and any conference regarding case management under Rule 16, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, litigants must discuss the advisability of using mediation or other ADR processes.

(c) Adoption of ADR Process in a Particular Case.

(1) Mediation. The court may order mediation:

[A] upon request of the parties, or one of them; or

[B] on the court's own motion.

(2) Other ADR Processes. In addition to mediation, the parties may stipulate, subject to court approval (and, in the case of arbitration, 28 U.S.C. §§ 654-658), to use any appropriate ADR process.

(d) Timing of Mediation. Unless otherwise ordered, mediation ordered by the court must be conducted within ninety (90) days after the issuance of the initial case management order.

(e) Conduct of Mediation.

(1) Use of Agreed Upon Mediator; Order. Where the parties agree to mediate and on the choice of mediator, the parties must lodge a proposed order setting forth:

[A] the name and address of the mediator;

[B] whether mediation statements—

(i) are to be submitted to the mediator,

(ii) are to be shared or confidential,

(iii) any limitation in length, and

(iv) when they are to be submitted;

[C] the mediator's fee schedule and required payment arrangements, including how the parties will allocate those costs;

[D] the time and place the mediation is to commence and time available; and

[E] the name and position of the principal who will attend, who will normally be someone with authority to approve a settlement or one with substantial influence in whether a settlement should be approved (in which case, someone with authority should be readily available to ratify a settlement).

(2) Selection of Mediator by the Court; Order.

[A] If the parties cannot agree upon the mediator, the court may order that they mediate before a United States district, bankruptcy or magistrate judge, including a senior judge or retired judge, who is not assigned to the case and who consents to serve.

[B] The judge will have the same duties, powers and rights as any other mediator under these rules, except as otherwise noted in this rule or as required by statute.

[C] Upon selection, the parties must meet with the mediating judge and lodge an order similar to that required under paragraph (e)(1), except the order will not provide for payment of compensation to the judge for acting as a mediator.

(3) Mediator's Report of Results of Mediation.

[A] Upon conclusion of the mediation, the mediator must promptly file a report indicating whether the case has settled in whole or in part, whether any follow up is scheduled, and any additional information that all parties have agreed in writing should be included in the report.

[B] The parties or their counsel must sign the mediator's report and any separate document setting forth their agreement, which, following an appropriate motion, the court may allow to be filed under seal.

(4) Implementing a Settlement.

[A] If the mediation results in settlement, the parties must lodge appropriate closing papers, or in the case of a partial settlement, papers appropriate to accomplish the partial settlement, within thirty (30) days from the filing of the mediator's report.

[B] Upon written request filed within thirty (30) days, the court may enlarge the time within which to file the appropriate closing papers.

(f) Confidentiality of Mediation Communications. This subsection applies to communications, during, preliminary to, or after all mediation sessions.

(1) Communications by the Mediator. No communication by a mediator may be disclosed by any person unless all parties to the mediation and the mediator consent.

(2) Communications by Others. A communication made by a person other than the mediator may be disclosed by a person other than the mediator only if all parties consent in writing.

(3) Mediation Statements. Mediation statements submitted to the mediator in confidence or shared with other mediation parties:

[A] may not be disclosed to anyone else without the parties' express consent; and

[B] are not admissible in evidence in any proceeding related to subject matter of the mediation.

(4) Unprotected Communications. Notwithstanding paragraphs (f)(1) and (f)(2), a communication is not protected to the extent that disclosure is required by state or federal law.

(5) Court May Authorize Disclosure. Notwithstanding paragraphs (f)(1) and (f)(2), a communication may be disclosed if the court, after a hearing, determines that:

[A] disclosure does not circumvent Rule 408, Federal Rules of Evidence and Rule 68, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;

[B] disclosure is necessary in the particular case to prevent a manifest injustice; and,

[C] the necessity for disclosure is of sufficient magnitude to outweigh the importance of protecting the general requirement of confidentiality in mediation proceedings.

(6) Application to Associates and Staff.

[A] Disclosure of confidential information to the staff and associates of the parties, their counsel, or the mediator, may be necessary to accomplish the mediation.

[B] All staff and associates are subject to this confidentiality rule.

(g) Conflicts of Interest.

(1) Definition. A conflict of interest for a mediator is a dealing or relationship that might reasonably be thought to create an appearance of bias.

(2) Disclosure; Further Proceedings.

[A] The mediator has a responsibility to disclose all dealings and relationships defined in paragraph (g)(1).

[B] If all parties agree, in writing, to mediate after being informed of all actual, apparent, or potential conflicts of interest, the mediator may proceed with the mediation; otherwise the mediator must decline to proceed.

(h) Immunity of Neutrals.

(1) Any private person serving as a neutral under this rule is deemed to be performing a quasi-judicial function and is entitled to the immunities and protections that the law accords to persons serving in that capacity.

(2) United States district judges, bankruptcy judges, magistrate judges, senior judges, and retired judges are entitled to absolute judicial immunity while serving as neutrals.

(i) Compensation. Unless the parties agree or the court orders otherwise, the cost of mediation will be borne equally by the parties.

(1) The mediator will advise the parties of the mediator's fee schedule and required payment arrangements so the parties can include this information in the proposed order required by paragraph (e)(1).

(2) [A] If the expense of mediation or any matter regarding compensation creates issues that the parties, among themselves or with the mediator, cannot agree upon, the parties or the mediator may ask the court to resolve the matter.

[B] In doing so, the court will take into consideration the relative financial condition of the parties.

(j) Administrator. The chief judge of the district will designate an employee or judicial officer of the district to act as the Administrator of the court's mediation program.

(k) Selection of Mediators and Other Neutrals; Roster of Neutrals. The court recognizes that the parties have control over their own neutrals.

(1) The court expects any private person who agrees to serve as a neutral to have training or experience commensurate with the responsibility undertaken.

(2) In court-connected and other forms of mediation, it is desirable that the mediators selected by the parties have the requisite training and experience.

(3) The court does not:

[A] investigate and approve mediators and other neutrals; or

[B] create and maintain a roster of neutrals.

(l) Definitions. The term Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) refers to any method other than litigation for resolution of disputes. Definitions of some common ADR terms follow.

Neutral – The term "neutral" as used in these rules refers to an impartial person who facilitates discussions and dispute resolution between parties in mediation, case evaluation or early neutral evaluation, and arbitration, or who presides over a settlement conference, summary jury trial or mini trial.

Mediation – Mediation is a process in which a neutral facilitates settlement discussions between parties. The neutral has no authority to make a decision or impose a settlement upon the parties. The neutral attempts to focus the attention of the parties upon their needs and interests rather than upon rights and positions. Although in court-annexed or court-referred mediation programs the parties may be ordered to attend a mediation session, any settlement is entirely voluntary. In the absence of settlement, the parties do not lose the right to a jury trial.

Arbitration – Arbitration differs from mediation in that an arbitrator or panel of arbitrators renders a decision after hearing an abbreviated version of the evidence. In non-binding arbitration, either party may demand a trial within a specified period. The essential difference between mediation and arbitration is that arbitration is a form of adjudication, mediation is not.

Case Evaluation or Early Neutral Evaluation – Case evaluation or early neutral evaluation is a process in which a lawyer with expertise in the subject matter of the litigation acts as a neutral evaluator of the case. Each side presents a summary of its legal theories and evidence. The evaluator assesses the strength of each side's case and assists the parties in narrowing the legal and factual issues in the case. This conference occurs early in the discovery process and is designed to "streamline" discovery and other pretrial aspects of the case. The early neutral evaluation of the case may also provide a basis for settlement discussions.

Summary Jury Trial – The summary jury trial is a non-binding abbreviated trial by mock jurors. A neutral selected by the parties presides, acting in the fashion of a judge. Principals with authority to settle the case attend. The resulting advisory jury verdict is intended to facilitate settlement negotiations.

Mini Trial – The mini trial is similar to the summary jury trial in that it is an abbreviated trial presided over by a neutral. Attorneys present their best case to party representatives with authority to settle. Generally, no decision is announced by the neutral. After the hearing, the party representatives begin settlement negotiations, perhaps calling on the neutral for an opinion as to how a court might decide the case.

- (i) provide the party's last known address and telephone number, and
- (ii) the attorney proposing to withdraw must arrange a hearing and give the client at least twenty (20) days written notice of the hearing, unless good cause is shown why a hearing should not be required.

[B] Unless good cause to the contrary is shown within five (5) days after notice has been mailed to the attorney's last known place of business or residence, an order of suspension or disbarment will be entered for such time as the court fixes.

(2) If a suspended attorney requests, in writing, reinstatement to practice before the court, and the court has received notification that the attorney has been reinstated to practice before the courts of the State of Alaska or such other courts where the suspended attorney practices, an order of reinstatement may be entered.
