

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ALASKA

In the matter of

JOINT STATUS REPORTS
REQUIRED IN ALL PENDING
CRIMINAL CASES EFFECTIVE
APRIL 5, 2021

MISCELLANEOUS GENERAL
ORDER 21-10

On March 31, 2021, the Court issued Miscellaneous General Order 21-09 Easing Restrictions on Court Proceedings. As discussed in MGO 21-09 the Court anticipates and the parties should be prepared for criminal and civil jury trials proceeding on a limited basis beginning May 3, 2021.

Therefore, on or before April 9, 2021, counsel in all pending criminal matters shall confer and submit a joint status report that will address the following:

- Whether the Court should prioritize the matter for trial. The Court has identified several factors it will evaluate in considering which cases should be given priority, such as:
  1. Proximity of time served in-custody and presumptive guideline range;
  2. Speedy Trial Act expiration;
  3. Complexity of matter;
  4. Ability for counsel to meaningfully interact with defendant in preparation of trial;
  5. Length of time in-custody; and
  6. Availability of counsel.

Counsel shall confer and advise the court on the applicable factors affecting the case.

- Whether the parties are ready to proceed to trial as soon as May 3, 2021. If one or both of the parties indicate that a May 3, 2021 trial date is not feasible, the parties shall provide a rationale for additional delay as well as three proposed trial dates agreeable to all parties.
- An estimate of the anticipated length of trial, noting that the Court has adopted safeguards and precautions that will likely result in atypical delays.
- What other issues, if any, remain to be resolved before the start of trial, such as motions in limine, discovery disputes or other pretrial litigation.
- Whether the parties anticipate the virtual participation of any witness during trial.

- Any other information that might assist the Court in identifying potential issues relating to conducting the trial in a matter the conforms with the precautions discussed above.

DATED this 31st day of March, 2021.
