(1) Bids must be received at the Marshal's office in Anchorage by 4:00 p.m. local time the business day preceding the sale.

(d) Payment of Bid. Except to the extent otherwise provided in the Order of Sale, the provisions of this subsection apply to all sales of property governed by the Supplemental Rules.

(1) Payment must be made in cash, by certified check or by cashier's check.

(2) The person whose bid is accepted:

[A] if the bid is one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or less, must immediately pay the full purchase price; or

(e) Late Payment.

(1) A successful bidder who does not pay the balance of the purchase price within the time allowed under these rules is responsible for paying the Marshal the cost of keeping the property from the due date until the balance is paid or until the property is released upon confirmation of sale.

(2) The Marshal may refuse to release the property until the cost of keeping the property is paid.

(f) Default.

(1) If the successful bidder does not pay the balance of the purchase price within the time allowed under D.AK. LAR (e)-13(d), any interested party may move on expedited consideration to hold the bidder in default.

(2) Upon default, the judicial officer may accept the second highest bid at the option of the second highest bidder or arrange a new sale on such terms as the court may order.

(3) The defaulting bidder's deposit will be:

(i) Upset Bids. No judicial sale under court order may be confirmed if, before or at the time set for confirmation, a bid is presented that is ten percent (10%), or more, in excess of the highest bid received at the sale ("upset bid").

(1) If an upset bid is received:

[A] a new sale will be held by the Court at the time of hearing on the motion or petition for confirmation; and

[B] only the upset bidder(s) and the party who made the highest bid at the original sale will be allowed to bid at the new sale.

(2) This rule does not prevent the Court from refusing to confirm and holding a new sale if a higher bid is presented that does not exceed ten percent (10%) of the highest bid at the original sale.

(j) Confirmation of Sale. The party seeking the sale of a vessel must lodge a proposed order with the Clerk of the Court confirming the sale within seven (7) calendar days (inclusive of weekends and holidays) after the date of sale.

(4) Upon receipt of a confirmation order, the Marshal will issue a bill of sale to the purchaser.

(k) Disposition of Deposits.

(ii) any balance remaining returned to the objector.

[C] The objector will be reimbursed for the custodial expenses of keeping the property from the proceeds of a subsequent sale.
